

EXQUISITE
ARCHITECTURAL HARDWARE

At Opitome, it is our belief that beautiful architectural hardware adds both a visual and tactile value that really makes a difference to any interior. It is these principles that has led us to form a new approach to providing exquisite architectural hardware. We see ourselves as the Concierge for all your door hardware needs. There is no demand too big or too difficult. We relish the challenge of finding and supplying what you really want for your project and we do not rest until every last element of hardware exceeds your requirements, from the handle design right down to the fixing screws.

This booklet provides a selection of architectural hardware to provide both stimulation and inspiration. An endless number of options are also available so please contact Opitome for the Hardware Concierge service.

The Finishing Touch That Elevates Every Interior

For designers who live and breathe detail, every curve, contour and finish must speak the language of the space. Opitome was created for professionals like you - where a handle isn't just hardware, but an expression of the wider story you're telling.

As your dedicated Architectural Hardware Concierge, we work alongside you to bring clarity, beauty and precision to the most tactile elements of your design. Whether you're specifying for a Grade II listed townhouse, a contemporary penthouse, or a boutique hospitality space, we make sure every hinge, latch, and lever performs flawlessly - in form and function.

Designed to Delight. Specified with Confidence.

Unlike other suppliers, we don't just ship products. We support your design process.

You'll never need to chase updates, hunt for spec sheets, or cross-check standards. Whether it's a single apartment or a multi-phase property development, we act as an extension of your studio - proactively sourcing, refining, and delivering architectural hardware solutions that make you look brilliant.

From concept to completion, Opitome makes your job easier.
